SELF HELP RESOURCE CENTER

The Clerk and Deputy Clerk are legally prohibited from giving any legal advice about which forms to use or how to proceed in a legal action for dissolution of marriage (Government Code §§ 24004, 68082).

If you are filing for divorce and do not have an attorney representing you, there is free assistance available. The Self-Help Resource Center (also known as the Family Law Facilitator) in Visalia provides a weekly Dissolution Judgment workshop every Monday morning at 9:30 a.m., in which staff explain each necessary form and the process for obtaining a divorce, legal separation or nullity by default. For more information, or to sign up for this class, contact the Self-Help Resource center at (559) 737-5500. Time and day of workshops subject to change without notice.

Assistance is also available at both Self-Help Resource Centers in Visalia and Porterville. The Self-Help Resource Center can assist you in completing your forms and can explain the general law and procedures involved in filing for divorce. They cannot provide strategic advice or express a legal opinion about the merits of your particular case. Please contact:

Superior Court of California, County of Tulare
SELF-HELP RESOURCE CENTER
(559) 737-5500

221 S. Mooney Blvd. (County Civic Center), Visalia CA 93291 OR 300 E. Olive Ave. (South County Justice Center), Porterville, CA 93257

It is your responsibility to read and complete all applicable forms thoroughly and follow all of the required procedures and local and state rules – failure to do so may result in the Court delaying or denying your request. If you have further questions or concerns regarding divorce, you may wish to consult with an attorney, use the assistance of a paralegal or typing service, or do self-research at the Tulare County Law Library (on the ground floor of the Visalia Courthouse, with Law Library computer terminals also available in the Self-Help Resource Center in the Porterville courthouse) or on the California Courts' Self-Help website at <https://www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-divorce.htm> (select the Spanish icon at the right of the webpage for information in Spanish).

STEP 1 DETERMINE YOUR NEXT STEP:

Your next step will depend in part on what your spouse has done in response to your Petition. There are four possible options:

1. Default Judgment – spouse was properly served at least 30 days ago, and did not file a Response, and you have no agreement.
2. Default By Agreement - spouse was properly served at least 30 days ago, and did not file a Response, and you have come to an agreement on all matters of child custody, child support, spousal support and property.
3. Uncontested – spouse was properly served and filed a Response and you have come to an agreement on all matters of child custody, child support, spousal support and property.
4. Contested – spouse was properly served and filed a Response and you do not have an agreement as to all matters of child custody, child support, spousal support and property.
 - a. If you have a contested case, you can tell the judge at your Case Management Conference that you are requesting a trial date. If you have property matters still in dispute, the Court may send you to mediation with the Better Business Bureau to try to resolve those issues prior to trial. If you have child support issues to resolve, the Court may send you to meet with the Department of Child Support Services.
 - b. Once your trial date is set, the Court will probably order you to file a Settlement Conference statement. The Self-Help Resource Center can assist you with that form.

STEP 2 COMPLETE THE NECESSARY FORMS

Type or neatly hand print all of the required forms in blue or black ink. Forms are also available in fillable .pdf format on the California Courts' website at www.courts.ca.gov/forms. A list of required forms is included on the front of this packet.

The Clerk will use these envelopes to send a signed copy of your Judgment to each spouse. If you are filing for Default Judgment the Clerk will also send a copy of the Request for Entry of Default to your spouse.

PLEASE NOTE:

- If you filed for Divorce, the earliest date for dissolution of your marriage will be 6 months and 1 days from the date of service of the Petition and Summons. If it has been more than 6 months since you served the Petition and Summons, the Judgment will take effect on the date the court signs the Judgment. This date will be written on your Judgment.
- If you filed for Legal Separation, your Legal Separation Judgment will take effect one the date the court signs the Judgment.
- If you filed for Nullity, the Court will likely order a "prove-up" hearing for you to appear and show your evidence supporting your claim of nullity. In that case, the Clerk's Office will mail a notice of hearing to you and your spouse and your Judgment will not be granted until the court has held this hearing.

NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar property interest. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.
